application, but the US Embassy in the Philippines has indicated the firm is engaged in smuggling, bribery, etc., and has recommended denial of the license. The firm, however, denies these allegations and requests an investigation be made to clear its name. Mr. [REDACTED] indicated that a name check would be made within CIA on this firm; but that it was not the responsibility of this Agency to conduct such investigations, this being the function of the Investigation Staff, Department of Commerce. Messrs. [REDACTED] CONFERRED WITH Mr. [REDACTED], OCI, with respect to an item prepared by Mr. [REDACTED] for publication in the OCI Daily Digest on the subject of ADEQUACY OF AUSTRIAN EXPORT CONTROLS. It was pointed out to Mr. [REDACTED] that the statement that controls on exports to the Soviet Bloc are reasonably effective is not accurate and is inconsistent with spot intelligence presented by CIA representatives at inter-agency export control meetings. Mr. [REDACTED] indicated that in light of these objections he would withhold publication of the item and would seek D/A assistance later if publication of an item on Austrian controls was considered advisable by OCI. (1/2 hr) (6 Sept) 25X1A9a

D/I:
